Community Academic Partners in Service-CAPS CKC Tutoring CAPS: 909-651-5011 FAX: 909-558-7145 24945 Mound Street # 1402 Loma Linda, CA 92350 KC Tutoring student coordinator: Laura Narrango ww.llu.edu/CAPS	CKC Tutoring is a one-on-one mentoring and tutoring program pairing local kids with LLU students. The purpose of CKC Mentoring is two-fold: To offer local elementary, middle school, and high school students a consistent and reliable homework assistance program. It is our hope through this weekly tutoring that a mentoring relationship will develop with the LLU student serving as a role-model and encourager for their mentee. CKC Mentoring facilitates the development of LLU students who are engaged in their community. These sessions allow students to truly connect first with their mentee, then with his/her family, and often, their community at large. Students meet once a week (Tuesday or Thursday) from 5:00-6:30 p.m. Also, there are a few weeks a year when the mentors are not scheduled to come (the first 2 weeks in December) where schools, classes, or other organizations can organize a program, run games, or give presentations for the local students.

We run a confidential toll-free 24-hour hotline for pregnant girls and women who find themselves scared and feel that they have no hope or that anyone can help them through this frightening time in their lives. Many are hiding their pregnancies, are near birth term, have no plans for their babies once born, and need prenatal care. They don’t want anyone to know their secret. Every pregnancy is kept confidential. We work with girls and women throughout the United States and Canada.

Enrichment Services:

IVRS provides enrichment services to youth aged 10 through 25 years old through its National Curriculum and Training Institute (NCTI) Crossroads education program. Services are designed to alleviate negative behaviors and address the complex needs of this population. Many are trauma exposed, in stressed families, at risk of school failure, and/or juvenile justice involvement. Alcohol, other drugs, tobacco, violence, and unsafe behavioral practices are common everyday occurrences with today's youth.

Drug Court:

IVRS provides the substance abuse treatment component of the San Bernardino County Juvenile Drug Court Services Program. The Drug Court is an intensive treatment program established within and supervised by the juvenile courts to provide specialized services for eligible drug-involved youth and their families.

This problem is the use of drugs and alcohol, and high risk behavior. Loma Linda University Medical Center and Children’s Hospital Trauma Support Services Department found that an opportunity existed to make a change and YASP was developed. It all begins with a hearing at the San Bernardino County Juvenile Informal Traffic Division. Clients are given the opportunity to chose between substantial fines or pay a lesser fine and attend the Youth Alternative Solutions Program. As the program has developed, they have expanded how adolescents are served from primarily juvenile courts referrals to parent and school referrals options. This option should increase an adolescent's knowledge of the effects of drugs and alcohol on the body, consequences of risky behavior with drugs and alcohol, alternative choices, the addictive process, and the self-efficacy of making life choices.

This is primarily accomplished through partnerships with local service agencies to provide quality programs to young children and their families. Other tools or resources offered by First 5 in the endeavor to improve early childhood include the Kelly Torres Center, the Kit for New Parents, and our School Readiness Initiative. First 5 San Bernardino’s commitment to serving our youngest children stems from the research in brain development showing that the experiences of children in their earliest years significantly affect the way they grow and develop. Positive results in the early years impact dramatically on their physical, mental, emotional and social development. This, in turn, reduces the social and financial costs of services the children might need in later years.

Counseling

Family Counseling: Available free-of-charge to all Chino residents, the Family Counseling program provides counseling services to youth, teens, adults, couples, and families seeking assistance in such areas as resolving conflicts, improving communication, parenting issues, etc.

Youth Counseling Program: The Youth Counseling program provides treatment and support services to elementary school students and their families. Issues dealt with include low self-esteem, social adjustment problems and/or behavior difficulties.

Teen Counseling: This program provides counseling services to junior and senior high school students experiencing family difficulties, low self-esteem, social adjustment problems and/or behavioral difficulties. Other issues covered include crisis intervention and conflict resolution. Teen counseling services are available throughout the traditional school year.

Batterers' Treatment: Formerly titled Anger Management, the Batterers' Treatment courses are designed to meet the needs of individuals who have identified that their anger has caused problems in relationships. Topics include: domestic violence dynamics, self-control/self-awareness, improved communication, techniques to de-escalate arguments and improved couple/family awareness. Separate groups exist for men and women and enrollment can be voluntary or court mandated. There is a fee for this service.

Penal Code 1000 (PC1000): This program is designed for adult substance abuse offenders mandated by the court system to participate in substance abuse education. There is a fee for this service.

Youth Anger Management: This program is designed to teach youth to understand where their intense feelings of anger originate, and to teach them to identify and recognize the origin of their anger in order to successfully manage it. They will also be taught to identify risk factors that contribute to poor impulse control. The program is taught in a small group setting consisting of weekly one-hour sessions for 10 weeks. There is a small fee per session.

Domestic Violence Counseling: In cooperation with the Chino Police Department, this program provides counseling, information and referral services to families and victims of domestic violence. Individual counseling and support groups are available and free to Chino residents.

Referral Card Program: This collaborative program partners with the Chino Police Department to provide domestic violence intervention as a result of referrals made by the Police Department at the time of a domestic disturbance call. The Referral Card Program was developed after two departments within the City of Chino saw a need within the community and worked together to develop a program that would benefit the citizens of Chino.

Tobacco Youth Prevention Education Program: This project is a tobacco prevention and cessation program for 9th-12th grade students. It is a multi-focused approach designed to bring students, parents, community agencies, and staff together in a coordinated, intense effort to halt tobacco use among teens. Program runs throughout the traditional school year.

Project ALERT: Project ALERT is a collaborative effort between the school district and Chino Human Services. Project ALERT is a drug prevention program for students in the 7th and 8th grades. It uses participatory activities and videos to help motivate adolescents against drug use, teach skills and strategies needed to resist pro-drug pressure, and establish non-drug using norms. This program runs throughout the traditional school year at six Chino Valley Unified School District junior high schools.

CAL-Safe Pregnant and Parenting Teens Counseling Program: Designed for students attending Buena Vista High School, this counseling program provides individual and group counseling for students in the Parenting Program. Discussion topics include: self-esteem, interpersonal relationships, parenting concerns, three-generational living, communication, conflict resolution, abusive relationships and practical life concerns. Program runs throughout the traditional school year.

Discovering that your teen “cuts” or self-injures his or her body is absolutely terrifying for a parent. You may fear that your teen is contemplating suicide. The Shield Program for Adolescent Self-Injury at Loma Linda University Behavioral Medicine Center is designed to help your teen learn ways to cope with extreme emotions without resorting to self-injury and to help parents understand how overwhelming emotions lead some teens to hurt themselves.

(All groups meet two days per week for three hours.)

Adolescent Skills Training Group

Teens attend this group to learn specific DBT skills to stop self-injurious behaviors and manage emotions effectively. This group helps teens learn to tolerate and reduce emotional pain while learning to change destructive patterns.

Multifamily Skills Training Group

Teens and their parents/guardians will learn skills simultaneously. This group enables parents not only to serve as coaches for their teen, but also acquire skills to improve effective family communication.

Parent Skills Training Group

Parents/guardians attend this group for support and to learn better ways to handle frustration, guilt, and their own overwhelming emotions. Family members are educated on DBT skills, family roles. Individual Session Teens will have a weekly session with a DBT therapist to assess their individual progress.

Valley Star uses individualized and highly flexible approaches that span school, family, and community environments. Valley Star services are family-centered and needs-driven, anchored in home visits for the family's convenience. Clinicians begin with an in-depth assessment identifying strengths and impairments. A treatment plan is developed in collaboration with the clients, family and mental health professional. Staff members collaborate with school personnel, county staff, parents and guardians, and other community agencies to achieve treatment goals.

- Valley Star Children and Family Services offers the following Prevention and Early Intervention Services: Student Assistance Program (SAP), which provides
 - Universal classroom education regarding social skills, anger control, problem solving and coping skills for everyday life.
 - Select small groups of targeted topics including bullying, depression, grief and loss, and anger management.
 - Individual services for more at risk youth who may be presenting symptoms of mental illness.
- Valley Star Children and Family Services offers the following Mental Health Services:
 - School-based services (including school consultation and interventions).
 - In-home services (including assessment, consultation, case management, individual and family counseling, and crisis intervention).
 - Clinic-based services are available as an alternative to in-home or school-based services.
 - Clinicians are experienced with various evidenced based practices and skilled in behavior modification targeting delinquency as well as children experiencing trauma stemming from abuse/neglect or traumatic events.

(VTC) exists to provide a healthy, healing living environment for severely emotionally disturbed children and youth who have such great needs that they are not able to succeed in family situations and/or lower levels of care. Children age 8 through 18 who have not been successful in family situations, foster homes, or group homes can find success within the Victor Treatment Centers environments. The youth served by VTC have significant mental, behavioral, or and emotional disorders that result in the need for 24/7 supervision in conjunction with intensive mental health services. VTC residential services are based on a foundation of strength-based and relationship-based approaches that support the optimal recovery and resiliency for these children and youth.

The Legal Aid program can assist you in resolving legal issues such as divorce, custody, guardianship or other matters. We provide the legal documents, prepare the forms, file the paperwork, refer you to existing resources and remind you of upcoming court dates. Services are provided at very low costs based on income.

If you need legal advice, our volunteer attorneys are standing by to help. No other program in the area gives clients the same personal attention. Each client is treated with respect, compassion and dignity.

No appointment is necessary. Please visit the office during regular business hours (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 11:00am to 5:00pm).

k-6 Programs

- Gym Activities: Triple Play Program, teaching members how to keep a healthy mind, body & soul. The gym also holds tournaments, daily games, and sports challenges.
- Project Learn: An after school homework program Monday-Thursday where members can receive help on their homework from Staff and Volunteers, providing a place for them to read and finish assignments. Members receive homework points as an incentive and are able to buy items from the Project Learn Store as a reward, teaching them to be responsible students.
- SMART Girls: A life skills mentoring program for girls grades 5th & 6th, teaching them about health & beauty, relationships, self-esteem, responsibility, and much more.

7-12 grade Programs

Power Hour: Homework program run in the Teen Center each day for one hour, where teens can complete their assignments and receive assistance.

- Delinquency Prevention Program: Partnered with Unity Home and Pacific Clinics that enables young people who display pre-delinquent behavior to become productive members of society.
- Career Launch: Teens are able to explore a variety of careers by having monthly Career Days where people from the community come out and talk to our teens about careers and skills needed in the job force. Members do job training and get hands-on experience to prepare them for the world of work after graduation.
- Date SMART: A life skills program to allow teen members to examine their feelings on dating, encouraging them to understand healthy relationships and mutual respect.
- SMART Girls: Like it's younger counterpart, this program delves into self-concept, decision making skills, and maintaining an overall healthy emotional attitude.
- Triple Play: A program that embodies the Mind, Body, and Soul. By improving Club members' knowledge of healthy habits, we help them develop good nutrition and physical fitness, increase the number of hours per day they participate in physical activities, and strengthen their ability to interact positively with others and engage in healthy relationships.
- Volunteer & Community Service Opportunities: Our volunteer program encourages good character in our teen members and an appreciation for citizenship by engaging them in year-round volunteer service activities to give back to the Club and the community.
- The Teen Center also offers video games, computers, outside activities, field trips, Movie Days, and tournaments. Our Teen Members have their own Teen Center where they can be apart from the younger members at the Club, giving them their own space.

Camp Good Grief Loma Linda University Children's Hospital 11234 Anderson Street Room 1801 Loma Linda CA 92354 Phone: 909-558-8212	Camp Good Grief is a three-day camp experience for children and teens 10-16 years old that have had a sibling or parent die. It provides the place and space for children and teens to come together in an atmosphere of love and acceptance. The purpose of Camp Good Grief is: For children and teens to meet others their own ages who are also learning about and understanding their grief. The second is to run, play, laugh, and be themselves--to really have a great time! By meeting others like themselves, they discover that they can share the same feelings and that those feelings are normal and okay. When a child or teen grieves alone, he or she may not realize that the feelings they experience at different times during the grief process are common--they are natural and normal. It is very important to understand that what is happening to them happens to others also. Their pain is understood here and accepted.

Juvenile Intervention Program (JIP)

San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department Public Affairs Division
655 East Third Street
San Bernardino, CA 92415
Phone: (909) 387-3700
www.sbcounty.gov/sheriff/

The J.I.P. is for parents or guardians who need intervention in their juvenile's life. Juveniles are exposed to the realities of jail life, and are also taken to the Coroner's Division to see the realities of death. During this time, the parents receive information on various topics such as drug and alcohol recognition, gang awareness, and addressing various teenage problems. FOLLOW-Up Program The goal of the workshops is to assist students in discovering who they are or what makes them "tick" as people. Recognizing and identifying who you are as an individual along with your strengths is a very powerful tool. Once this discovery is made, now what? The answer is lying within each and every one of us in the choices we make on a daily basis. Personal accountability on all levels; parents and children are the key to success. Once we make the conscious choice to own our lives the power of our mind will allow us to achieve our goals in life. The following skills are emphasized: self awareness, communication, personal responsibility, choices and conflict resolution. Workshops Who am I, and what are my strengths? Personal Accountability The power of the mind-How do I make change in my life?  Must Complete Juvenile Intervention Program prior to enrolling in workshops

Providing care, counsel, coaching and essential support services for children, teens, young adults – and their families because sometimes you need a little help.

Wraparound provides strength based support to clients and families at home or in the community by resourcing, coaching, and facilitating Child and Family Team meetings as well as therapy, Therapeutic Behavioral Services, and psychiatrist services. Referrals come from Children and Family Services, Probation, and West End SELPA.

Success First is referred to as “Early Wrap” which includes home/community based principles of wrap for youth who are at significant risk for hospitalization, incarceration or expulsion.

Children’s Intensive Services provides short term treatment services to clients whose behaviors are severe (risk or harm to self, others or school failures) and require home/community based interventions involving the entire family system.

General Mental Health provides time limited individual therapy, EBP group therapy, as well as psychiatrist services and case management to assist with basic needs. The clinic serves adult clients with severe, chronic and persistent mental health disorders. Accepts clients with Medi-Cal and no insurance.

School Aged Treatment Services provides therapy, coaching and psychiatrist services to clients in a natural setting such as schools and homes. Services benefit clients with functional difficulties in school, community or home settings, ie. Sleep disruption, grade decline, suicidal ideation, aggressive behaviors.

Crossroads (NCTI) provides cognitive skills building to youth who are demonstrating high risk behaviors. Common classes include Anger Management, Drugs and Alcohol, Truancy, Parenting, and Real Colors communication presentation.

Student Assistant Program utilizes education, short term individual and family therapy, and support groups to promote wellness and resiliency factors for students.

Community Wholeness and Enrichment provides educational presentations and support groups, screenings for mental health issues, case management and short term individual and couples and family therapy. Services are provided for all ages, 12 and older. Children’s Network and the Mentoring Task Force are not responsible for and make no guarantees regarding the services listed on this site.
