Mentoring Services for Children and Youth

Pathways from Boys to Men	Pathway from Boys to Men Inc, (PFBM INC), is a nonprofit organization committed to changing the lives of inner city youth. Founded in 2005 by James D. Randolph in an effort to reduce the number of youth imprisonment, displacement, violence, and drug addiction in adolescent boys in the Inland Empire through mentoring, education, job training, and sports education. These programs were designed to assist men, women, and youth with community resources, education assistance, and the self-confidence needed to live happy, healthy, and productive lives. More importantly, PFBM Inc. provides men, women, and youth with role models and elder support.	PFBTM services support the county of San Bernardino, which includes Fontana, Rialto, Colton, as well as the High Desert areas, Victorville, Apple Valley, and Hesperia.	James D.
