A retired Colonel with more than 36 years in the United States Army has been appointed as San Bernardino County's Veterans Affairs Director.

Frank Guevara, who retired from the Army in May 2013, began his new role on June 1, 2015.

"I'm excited to join Veterans Affairs and look forward to serving our veterans and their families," Guevara said.

Guevara will oversee a team of 18 with offices in San Bernardino, Rancho Cucamonga, and Hesperia. He will replace Bill Moseley who recently retired.

Guevara has been an Application Development Manager for San Bernardino County's Information Services Department since 1989. He has a BS in Computer Information Systems from Cal Poly Pomona and an MBA from the University of La Verne.

"We are pleased that Frank Guevara is San Bernardino County's incoming Veterans Affairs Director," said Linda Haugan, Human Services Assistant Executive Officer. "Frank is a veteran with more than three decades of service to our Country and we look forward to all that he will do for San Bernardino County's veterans and their families."

He is actively involved with the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. During his time in the service, he held various positions of increased responsibility, including Officer in Charge of the Intelligence and Security Command, where he was in charge of 5,400 military and civilian personnel, providing intelligence personnel and equipment to US and NATO forces throughout Afghanistan. He was deployed to Iraq, Afghanistan, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia during his service.

Veterans Affairs is doing its part to help the community achieve the Countywide Vision by ensuring residents have the resources they need to provide the necessities of life to their families. Information on the Countywide Vision can be found at www.sbcounty.gov/vision.
