Home Visiting Program

The California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids (CalWORKs) Home Visiting Program (HVP) is for parents who are currently pregnant and/or have a child less than 24 months old.

The goals of HVP include:

- Supporting positive health, development, and outcomes for pregnant and parenting women, families and infants,
- Expanding future educational, economic, and financial capability, and
- Improving the likelihood that families will transition out of poverty.

Services

- Child and family education,
- Screenings and assessments,
- Employment and training opportunities,
- Mental health evaluations,
- Immigration referrals and services,
- Linkage to high quality early learning,
- Transportation assistance, including gas cards and bus passes, and
- Health and safety items.

Participation

Participation in HVP can be included in Welfare to Work (WTW) hours and used to meet Work Participation requirements.

Participation includes:

- Parent workshops and coaching, and
- Weekly 90 minute in-home visitation sessions.
